OUR MISSION

Our mission is to provide culturally sensitive programs and services creating a Pan-Asian community that advocates for and supports itself.

WHO WE ARE

As a non-profit, the primary goal of NMAFC is to help Asians and their families become more self-sufficient, empowered, and aware of their rights by utilizing multilingual and multicultural staff members, licensed counselors, and interpreters. NMAFC is the only social service agency in New Mexico that tailors its services* to the Asian population.

For the most up to date list of languages on staff please contact NMAFC. The agency also utilizes phone interpreter services as needed for other languages.

*Services are primarily free of charge or billed to appropriate insurance.

WHAT WE DO

CHILDREN AND FAMILY PROGRAMS

Intergenerational, cross-cultural activities that bring the whole family together:

- Family activities in Chinese and Vietnamese
 - Storytelling
 - Cultural cooking events
 - Cultural arts and crafts

SUPPORT SERVICES

For victims of crime, problem gamblers, and those seeking assistance in navigating U.S. systems:

- Legal services: family law consultations and representation
- Counseling: individual and family
- Case management: securing housing, food, clothing, medical insurance and social security
- Resource and referrals

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

Community education presentations to Asian and mainstream groups on issues impacting Asian communities:

- Cultural competency
- Responsible gambling
- Language access
- Sexual and domestic violence
- Immigrant rights

ADVOCACY

NMAFC staff and Mosaic Voices* members work for the rights, safety, and well-being of Asian families by advocating for equal access to government and community based services:

- Systems change
- Policy advocacy
- Collaborative networking

*Mosaic Voices is a community-led group working to identify and address issues impacting Asian communities.
